NVQ Diploma in Management at Level 7

Accredited by ILM (Institute of Leadership and Management)

IVITA Learning offers a flexible approach to this NVQ Diploma programme taking account of candidates' prior knowledge and experience, and the needs of the business.

Either:

10 x 2-hour sessions are available for the candidate and will typically include a mixture of:

- Bite-sized training sessions to address learning needs.
- Individual coaching sessions to help implement and reflect on new learning.
- Assessment planning sessions to help identify evidence for the portfolio.

Or:

- A series of 5 training days to cover the learning needed for the units.

As this qualification is broadly comparable to working at masters degree level, it is expected that candidates will be proactive in extending their learning in their own time in addition to sessions with tutors.

Assessments will be through observation of candidates at work, witness testimonies from their staff and manager, professional discussion, answering questions and some documentary evidence.
